≡ NEW DOCUMENTARY FILM SHOWCASE: JANUARY 5 - 11 ≡

There is quite the variety of topics in our New Documentary Showcase; from Hitchcock to racism in Baltimore. Faces Places won the best doc at Cannes Film Festival, Big Sonia will inspire you, 78/52 is an interesting take on Hitchcock's obsession, and The Rat Film is simply fascinating!

78/52 (2017)

An in-depth look at Hitchcock's iconic shower scene from Psycho. Composed of 78 shots and 52 cuts, it changed filmmaking forever.

FACES PLACES (2017)

Agnes Varda teams up with a young photographer to fulfill her dream of meeting new faces and capturing them so they don't "fall down the holes of my memory."

BIG SONIA (2016)

A 91 yr. old Holocaust survivor, whose tenacious drive has kept her shop open for 30+ years. An eviction causes difficult decisions and a deep reflection on her past.

RAT FILM (2016)

Theo Anthony's film explores the history and racism of Baltimore through an unlikely conduit—the rat.

≡ JOHN WATERS & DIVINE: JANUARY 12 - 18 ≡

John Waters and Divine's work has become iconic, launching "bad taste" films designed to shock conventional America. Row House is featuring four of these films that really launched their careers! Come see the woman John Waters gave the tagline, "the most beautiful woman in the world, almost."

FEMALE TROUBLE (1974)

A schoolgirl gets pregnant and supports herself as a fashion model for beauticians who like to photograph women committing crimes.

PINK FLAMINGOS (1972)

Notorious criminal Divine goes up against a sleazy married couple who vie for her tabloid-given title as "The Filthiest Person Alive."

MULTIPLE MANIACS (1970)

Lady Divine runs The Cavalcade of Perversion, a freak-show designed to rob its patrons. Her murdering and cheating sparks a rampage.

POLYESTER (1981)

A frustrated housewife loses it when her pornographer husband is caught cheating, and she's left to contend with her seriously dysfunctional family.

≡ NEW ANIMATED FEATURES: JANUARY 19 - 25 ≡

Bring your young and old to the flashy new release from GKIDS, Mary and the Witch's Flower, a magical adventure from one of Hayao Miyazaki's lead animators. The Breadwinner and Birdboy: The Forgotten Children balance gorgeous animation with dark themes.

MARY AND THE WITCH'S FLOWER (2017)

A dazzling adventure about a young girl named Mary, who discovers a flower that grants magical powers, but only for one night.

BIRDBOY: THE FORGOTTEN CHILDREN (2015)

Birdboy has hidden himself away, but his mouse girlfriend Dinky gathers her friends and hatches a plan to find him and run away together forever.

THE BREADWINNER (2017)

A courageous girl in Afghanistan disguises herself as a boy so she can provide for her family and rescue her father from his wrongful imprisonment.

COCO (2017)

Miguel dreams of being a musician but his family has an unexplained ban on music. Inhabitants from The Land of the Dead can help him achieve his dreams.

≡ THE CULT OF JOHN CARPENTER: JAN. 26 - FEB. 1 ≡

The work of John Carpenter is a quintessential journey from critical failure to unstoppable cult icon! Join us for the violent and gritty Assault on Precinct 13, the absurd Big Trouble in Little China, Stephen King's scary car flick Christine, and the chilly sci-fi thriller The Thing.

ASSAULT ON PRECINCT 13 (1976)

A police sergeant forms an alliance with a group of prisoners to defend a closing L.A. precinct from a gang called Street Thunder.

CHRISTINE (1983)

A teenage nerd becomes psychotically obsessed with his new car, Christine. Christine, in turn, becomes obsessed with him.

BIG TROUBLE IN LITTLE CHINA (1986)

An All-American trucker gets caught up in Chinese street gangs, ancient curses, human sacrifices, and one feisty blonde beauty.

THE THING (1982)

An alien life-form can assimilate other organisms and imitate them. It infiltrates and terrorizes a research group, making it impossible to figure out who is real.
